NOTE

From: General Secretariat of the Council
To: Delegations
Subject: List of Council preparatory bodies

1. The list of Council preparatory bodies is attached in Annex I<sup>1</sup>.
2. For preparatory bodies marked with a single asterisk, all delegates should have a valid EU personnel security clearance at least to the level SECRET UE/EU SECRET. For preparatory bodies marked with a double asterisk, all delegates should have a valid EU personnel security clearance at least to the level CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL<sup>2</sup>.
3. Annex II sets out certain security requirements governing access to meetings, in particular where classified information is discussed.

<sup>1</sup> This list does not include Joint Committees and other bodies with third countries. Nor does it include certain bodies (e.g. the Schengen Joint Supervisory Authority and the Standing Committee on Employment) which, although they meet in the Council building, are not Council preparatory bodies.

4. Annex III lists all the preparatory bodies with a fixed chair (i.e. committees or Working Parties with an elected/appointed chair, chaired by a representative of the High Representative or chaired by the General Secretariat of the Council).
5. Committees or Working Parties may only be set up by, or with the approval of, the Council or Coreper. Only the committees and Working Parties on this list may meet as Council preparatory bodies (Article 19(3) of the Council's Rules of Procedure). Ad hoc Working Parties cease to exist once their terms of reference have been fulfilled. Their terms of reference should expressly state this rule or be time-limited.
6. Substantial and important new technical proposals requiring specific expertise should, as a rule, be included within the remit of the competent existing Working Party. If necessary for practical reasons, a specific sub-area may be listed rather than creating a new permanent or ad hoc Working Party. The listing of sub-areas does not imply that Working Party remits are confined to the sub-areas in question; Working Parties cover any other matters falling within their general scope. The Presidency may request the listing of such sub-areas on the basis of practical need.
7. Meetings should only be convened when a sufficiently substantive agenda exists or objective deadlines require it.

SECURITY PROCEDURES FOR MEETINGS OF COUNCIL PREPARATORY BODIES

Access to meeting rooms

1. Rooms where meetings are in progress are considered protected areas and may be subject to access and presence control by the organising entity or by General Secretariat staff. Meetings of certain Council configurations or meetings where sensitive matters are discussed may be subject to access and presence controls by staff from Safety and Security Directorate. For meetings where EU classified information is discussed, further details are provided below. Presence at other meetings is checked by peers under the responsibility of the chair.
2. Delegates' identification badges must be worn visibly. Room attendants may ask to verify any delegate's identification badge and, where an individual cannot produce it, request the assistance of the Safety and Security Directorate. Security officers agents are authorised to deny access or to remove any unidentified or unauthorised individuals from a meeting. Holders of day badges will only be admitted if their badges specifically authorise attendance at the meeting.

Discussion of classified items

3. All discussion of classified items must be organised in accordance with the Council's security rules for protecting EU classified information<sup>83</sup>.

Security clearance

4. Delegates attending meetings of the Council preparatory bodies where classified items are discussed regularly must be cleared at least to the levels indicated in Annex I of this document.
5. Delegations will be reminded in advance of the security clearance requirement for any item classified CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above in the notice convening the meeting.
6. It is the responsibility of the meeting chair to announce the discussion of an item classified at level CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above and to ensure that all delegates attending are appropriately security cleared. It is the responsibility of Member States to send only appropriately cleared representatives to such meetings. The chair may request the assistance of the Safety and Security Directorate to deal with any issues that may arise.

7. For delegates (and interpreters) attending items classified CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, a personnel security clearance certificate (PSCC) must be forwarded by the appropriate national authorities, the Commission Security Directorate or the EEAS Security Office to the GSC Safety and Security Directorate (security.clearances@consilium.europa.eu). Exceptionally, the original PSCC certificate may be hand-carried by the delegate concerned.

CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL

8. Discussion of items involving information classified CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL may take place in any meeting room. Access to meetings or items classified CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL is subject to spot checks conducted by the GSC Safety and Security Directorate with the assistance of the GSC official servicing the meeting. Electronic devices (portable computers, tablet devices, mobile phones, PDAs, etc.) are particularly vulnerable to being compromised for eavesdropping. Delegations must switch off such devices for the duration of items classified CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL. The Chair or the GSC official servicing the meeting should remind delegates of this before discussion of the item.

SECRET UE/EU SECRET

9. Discussion of items involving information classified SECRET UE/EU SECRET must always take place in the room designated for this purpose. Access to meetings or items classified SECRET UE/EU SECRET is controlled by the GSC Safety and Security Directorate with the assistance of the GSC official servicing the meeting. The Safety and Security Directorate is instructed not to allow any exceptions to the possession of a SECRET UE/EU SECRET personal security clearance, nor to allow the presence of electronic devices.
